A FEW ITEMS OF EARLY HISTORY OF INTEREST

Hessian Captured and Americanized

Report by Martin E. Goldizen

That Gabriel Goldizen, then spelled Guldice or Culdice, from Hesse Castle joined with other country men to fight with the British, and that he was captured at Trenton by Washington's Army, and joined the American Army; and after the war settled for a while in Pennsylvania, and later removed to Mill Creek in present Grant County.

That Gabriel was educated; and located and taught school on Mill Creek, and married Susanna Judy, and that their children were Michael and a daughter who married George Mace, and this informant well remembered Susanna then living near North Fork at a place since known as Granny's Hill, which took its name from her, and that she died when she had passed the mark of 100 years.

That informant was a son of Michael.

WILLIAM R. FORSYTHE.

Among the representative and progressive farmers of Liberty township, Guernsey county, William R. Forsythe stands high in the estimation of his fellows. He was born on August 11, 1850, on the farm where he now lives, three miles northwest of Kimbolton, the son of Robert H. and Rebecca (Robe) Forsythe. His parents came to Liberty township from Wills township directly after marriage, both having been born in Guernsey county, of which the Forsythes and Robes were both pioneer families. His father became a large land owner, a prosperous farmer and a man of affairs. He was a Republican, and was active in public affairs during the early years of his life and filled various township offices. A member of the United Presbyterian church, he was for many years an elder and was a devout churchman. He died in January, 1909, aged eighty-nine, and his wife died in January, 1908, aged eighty-seven. Both are buried in Kimbolton cemetery.

Robert and Rebecca Forsythe are the parents of three sons and two daughters: Robert R., who served during the Civil war and gave his life to his country; Sarah J., deceased; William R.; Anna M., deceased; and Elmer J., of Oregon.

William R. Forsythe spent his childhood and youth until his marriage with his father, received his education in the district schools, and taught school for four years. He was married on May 30, 1871, to Anna C. Kennedy, daughter of Benjamin and Margaret (Orr) Kennedy, of Jefferson township, Guernsey county, of which they were prominent residents. To Mr. and Mrs. Forsythe have been born six children: Ora A., now the wife of Rev. W. W. Willis, of Westmoreland county, Pennsylvania, a graduate of Muskingum College and for years a popular and progressive teacher before her marriage; Mary I., a teacher, a graduate of Muskingum College, at New Concorn, Ohio, now a student doing special work at the University of Michigan; Margaret R., a graduate of the Northwestern University at Ada, Ohio, and now a successful teacher at Carnegie, Pennsylvania; John H., deceased; Laura B., a former student of Muskingum College, and now a teacher at Lebanon, Ohio; Craig R., a graduate of Muskingum College, and graduated from the Allegheny Theological Seminary, is now a United Presbyterian minister, located at Rock Prairie, Wisconsin.

For ten years after marriage Mr. Forsythe lived on his farm, about one and a half miles east of the homestead, and in 1882 he came to the old home farm and has since lived here. He visited the west early in 1882, with a view of location, but, concluding that Ohio and the old home farm were good enough for him, returned and bought the home of his parents. The farm consists of one hundred and ninety acres in the fertile Wills creek valley, and is well improved and well tilled, with good barns, stock sheds, and a convenient modern house, everything being in good condition. He follows general farming and is an extensive stock raiser.

In politics, Mr. Forsythe is a Republican and is active in public affairs, being always a friend of education.. He and his family are members of the United Presbyterian church, and Mr. Forsythe has long been an elder, while all the family are active church workers. He is a strong and substantial man and citizen, and his family occupies a prominent place in the affairs and social life of the community.

FORSYTHE FAMILY

The Forsythe family found in Guernsey County, Ohio starts with three brothers, William, John and James Bell, all natives of Aberdeen, Scotland. They were born about 1730 and came to New York about 1750. William went to Canada, and then to Detroit, Michigan. John settled in Massachusetts, and then Fayette County, Pennsylvania. James Bell Forsythe became a farmer and settled near Washington, Washington County, Pennsylvania. He was quite active in the Buffalo United Presbyterian Church.

Robert Forsythe, son of James B., was born October 29, 1794, in Pennsylvania. In 1816 he went to the Zanesville Land Office and bought land in Guernsey County, Ohio. On March 19, 1818, he married Elizabeth Bell. He then went to his property in Liberty Township, Guernsey County, with his new wife and his mother. Elizabeth Bell Forsythe was born January 25, 1799, in Ireland. Two children were born in Ohio, Elizabeth J. (1819-1820) and Robert Hazlett Forsythe (1819-1908).

Elizabeth Bell Forsythe died in 1819. She and Robert's mother were buried in Bell's graveyard between Kimbolton and Birds Run.

Robert Forsythe married again August 29, 1820 to Sarah Frame, the daughter of Thomas and Elizabeth (Baird) Frame. She was born March 28, 1803, in Fayette County, Pennsylvania. Her family had moved to Wills Township, Guernsey County, Ohio, in 1810.

Robert Forsythe was both a teacher and a preacher. Between 1821 and 1840 twelve children were born. In 1840, Robert owned 296 acres in sections 18 and 19, Wills Township. Sarah died November 13, 1862, and Robert married for the third time to Esabelle McBurney after which they moved into Cambridge, Ohio. Robert died November 11, 1869. He and his second wife are buried in the Old Washington Cemetery. Submitted by J. Gilbert Cutton

ROBERT FORSYTH FAMILY

Although I have not lived in Guernsey County since 1928, the place in which one grew up is always "home." Therefore, I want to record what I know about my great- grandfather Robert Forsyth. I am confining this report mainly to names and dates in the hope that it may be of help to others who are searching for their "roots."

Sarah Clippinger Forsythe

Robert Forsyth was born in Washington County, Pa. on October 29, 1794. There he married (1) Elizabeth Bell on March 19, 1818. She was born in Ireland on January 25, 1799. Soon after their marriage they came to Liberty Twp., Guernsey County and settled on a farm. To them a son Robert Hazelett was born on June 13, 1819. Elizabeth died on July 15, 1819. She is buried in Bell's Cemetery, Liberty Twp.

Robert married (2) Sarah Frame on August 29, 1820. She was born on March 28, 1803 in Fayette County, Pa. the daughter of Thomas Frame and Elizabeth Baird who had moved to Ohio in 1810. Robert and Sarah lived in Liberty Twp. until 1832 when they moved to another farm in Wills Twp. near Old Washington. Seven children were born to them while they lived in Liberty Twp. (1) Nancy Belle — 1821-1907 m. Andrew Clark (2) Thomas Frame — 1823-1903 m. Martha Robinson 1848 and Agnes Duff 1849 (3) James Leeper — 1824-? m. Nancy Bell 1851 and Agnes Bennett 1859 (4) William Riddle — 1826-1849 (5) Elizabeth Jane — 1828-1829 (6) Sarah Anne — 1829-? m. Hamilton Pollock (7) John Ross — 1831-1879? m. Lucinda Hope 1858 and Sarah Ellen Stewart 1860.

While living in Liberty Twp. Robert farmed, taught school and occasionally preached in the schoolhouse. Five more children were born to Robert and Sarah after they moved to Wills Twp. They moved to Cambridge where he died February 11, 1869. He was buried in the City Cemetery on South 11th Street. I remember seeing his tombstone many years ago, but it has unfortunately disappeared.

Cephas Porter Forsythe, (note that an "e" had been added to the name by then) the tenth child of Robert and Sarah, was my grandfather. He was a farmer and after his marriage to Sarah Ann Clippinger in 1864, built the house on the East Pike in which they lived until they moved to Cambridge in 1901. They bought the M.D. Robin's property on Wheeling Ave. where the present Post Office stands. Cephas and his sons founded the Forsythe Coal Company in 1891 which was incorporated in 1898. Cephas and Sarah had seven children. (1) Howard Johnson — 1865-1927 m. Amanda Maria Conway 1892 (2) Sara Jennie — 1867-1901 m. Palmer McConnel 1893 (3) Homer Anderson — 1869-1930 m. Cora L. Howard Melville Ewing.

I, Gladys May, am the only child of (6) William Riddle and Clara Blanche. I was born at 317 North 10th St., Cambridge on January 17, 1904. I married Benjamin Finley Hazen of Smock, Pa. on December 25, 1928. We had one son, James Forsythe, who was born in Boston, Mass., March 9, 1935. He married Lynn Shuford of Salisbury, N.C. on September 4, 1961. They have two children, Charles Randall and Jessica and live in Las Vegas, Nevada. I have lived in Columbus, Ohio since 1935. My husband died in 1966. Submitted by Gladys Forsythe Hazen

HOMER ANDERSON FORSYTHE

Homer Anderson Forsythe, a prominent Cambridge coal operator and businessman in the early 1900s, was born in Center Township of Guernsey County, April 27, 1869, son of Cephas P. and Sarah Ann (Clippinger) Forsythe, both of whom were born and reared in Guernsey County. Cephas P. Forsythe as a young man had been engaged in farming and stock raising in Wills Township, but in 1866 moved to Center Township. On a portion of his own farm he started mining coal in 1891 under the name of the Forsythe Coal Company. He remained active in that business until his death July 16, 1903, at age sixty-seven. Sarah Ann (Clippinger) Forsythe died September 29, 1920 at age seventy-three.

Second in a family of seven children, Homer Anderson Forsythe was reared on his father's FARm and acquired a public school education. IN 1891 he became identified with his father's coal business later being named superintendENT. In 1898 when the business was incorpoRAted as the Forsythe Coal Company, he beCAme secretary-treasurer and general manager of the company, with his brother, Howard J., WAS president. The company had two mining locations, one at Belle Valley in Noble County, on the Pennsylvania Railroad, and the other at Mineral Siding, in Center township, on the Baltimore and Ohio. The Belle Valley mine was unusual in that it was one of the few mines in Ohio mining coal at two levels, working simultaneously the No. 6 and No. 7 veins Through surface connection by its one shaft which was approximately 250 feet deep. The company produced steam coal, railroad and domestic coal and was the largest locally-owned company operating in Guernsey County.

Mr. Forsythe was an officer of several other Cambridge business enterprises which flourished in that era including The Cambridge Steel Products Company, The Harper-Hutchison-Thompson Company, The Cambridge Buick Company and The No. 8 Coal Company in Belmont County. In 1919 he built what is still the largest and most substantial building in Cambridge at 916 Wheeling Avenue. Known as the Forsythe Building, this three-story fireproof structure houses commercial offices on the ground floor and residential apartments above. He was a ruling elder of the Second United Presbyterian Church and a member of the Scioto Consistory of the Scottish Rite Masons and the Mystic Shrine.

On December 20, 1899, he married Cora Lee Eagleson, a native of Guernsey County. To this marriage were born six children: Willard Homer, Thomas Russell and Robert Byron, all deceased; still living are Olive Jeannette (Mrs. William F. Steadman, Cambridge), Ruth Lucille (Mrs. John H. White, Cambridge), and Homer A., Jr., Kent, Ohio.

The family home was originally located on the corner of South Tenth Street and Wheeling Avenue until about 1912 when it was moved approximately one hundred feet south to permit construction of the United States Post Office. The home was demolished in the mid-1950s to allow expansion of the Post Office facilities.

Mr. Forsythe died January 1, 1930 at age 60, and his wife, Cora L., died February 26, 1973 at age 94.

Grandchildren of Homer A. and Cora L. Forsythe are Cornelia Ann Forsythe Schlafli, Colorado Springs, Colorado and Jean Forsythe Baker, Bridgeville, Pennsylvania, daughters of Willard H. and Edna (Harper) Forsythe; Joanna Forsythe Poley and Robert F. Forsythe, Jr., both of Marquette, Michigan, daughter and son of Robert B. and Elizabeth (Myers) Forsythe; William F. Steadman, Jr., Albuquerque, New Mexico, son of William F. (deceased) and Jeannette Forsythe Steadman; John N. White, Salt Point, New York and Thomas F. White, Worthington, Ohio, sons of John H. and Ruth Forsythe White; Rebecca Forsythe Anderson, Tolland, Connecticut, Steven A. Forsythe, D.D.S., Kalamazoo, Michigan and Kathryn Forsythe Chapman, Cleveland Heights, Ohio, children of Homer A. Forsythe, Jr. and Jayne (Gates) Forsythe.

Mrs. Lillian (Murphy) Forsythe, widow of Thomas Russell Forsythe, still lives in Cambridge. Submitted by Homer A. Forsythe, Jr.

FORSYTHE FAMILY

The Forsythe family found in Guernsey County, Ohio starts with three brothers, William, John and James Bell, all natives of Aberdeen, Scotland. They were born about 1730 and came to New York about 1750. William went to Canada, and then to Detroit, Michigan. John settled in Massachusetts, and then Fayette County, Pennsylvania. James Bell Forsythe became a farmer and settled near Washington, Washington County, Pennsylvania. He was quite active in the Buffalo United Presbyterian Church.

Robert Forsythe, son of James B., was born October 29, 1794, in Pennsylvania. In 1816 he went to the Zanesville Land Office and bought land in Guernsey County, Ohio. On March 19, 1818, he married Elizabeth Bell. He then went to his property in Liberty Township, Guernsey County, with his new wife and his mother. Elizabeth Bell Forsythe was born January 25, 1799, in Ireland. Two children were born in Ohio, Elizabeth J. (1819-1820) and Robert Hazlett Forsythe (1819-1908).

Elizabeth Bell Forsythe died in 1819. She and Robert's mother were buried in Bell's graveyard between Kimbolton and Birds Run.

Robert Forsythe married again August 29, 1820 to Sarah Frame, the daughter of Thomas and Elizabeth (Baird) Frame. She was born March 28, 1803, in Fayette County, Pennsylvania. Her family had moved to Wills Township, Guernsey County, Ohio, in 1810.

Robert Forsythe was both a teacher and a preacher. Between 1821 and 1840 twelve children were born. In 1840, Robert owned 296 acres in sections 18 and 19, Wills Township. Sarah died November 13, 1862, and Robert married for the third time to Esabelle McBurney after which they moved into Cambridge, Ohio. Robert died November 11, 1869. He and his second wife are buried in the Old Washington Cemetery. Submitted by J. Gilbert Cutton

The Forsythe family found in Guernsey County, Ohio starts with three brothers, William, John and James Bell, all natives of Aberdeen, Scotland. They were born about 1730 and came to New York about 1750. William went to Canada, and then to Detroit, Michigan. John settled in Massachusetts, and then Fayette County, Pennsylvania. James Bell Forsythe became a farmer and settled near Washington, Washington County, Pennsylvania. He was quite active in the Buffalo United Presbyterian Church.

Robert Forsythe, son of James B., was born October 29, 1794, in Pennsylvania. In 1816 he went to the Zanesville Land Office and bought land in Guernsey County, Ohio. On March 19, 1818, he married Elizabeth Bell. He then went to his property in Liberty Township, Guernsey County, with his new wife and his mother. Elizabeth Bell Forsythe was born January 25, 1799, in Ireland. Two children were born in Ohio, Elizabeth J. (1819-1820) and Robert Hazlett Forsythe (1819-1908).

Elizabeth Bell Forsythe died in 1819. She and Robert's mother were buried in Bell's graveyard between Kimbolton and Birds Run.

Robert Forsythe married again August 29, 1820 to Sarah Frame, the daughter of Thomas and Elizabeth (Baird) Frame. She was born March 28, 1803, in Fayette County, Pennsylvania. Her family had moved to Wills Township, Guernsey County, Ohio, in 1810.

Robert Forsythe was both a teacher and a preacher. Between 1821 and 1840 twelve children were born. In 1840, Robert owned 296 acres in sections 18 and 19, Wills Township. Sarah died November 13, 1862, and Robert married for the third time to Esabelle McBurney after which they moved into Cambridge, Ohio. Robert died November 11, 1869. He and his second wife are buried in the Old Washington Cemetery. Submitted by J. Gilbert Cutton

WAR OF 1812.

I am able here to transcribe, from Sanderson's pamphlet, the organizations of two companies commanded by him in the war with England, in 1812 and 1813.

His first company enlisted in Fairfield County in 1812, to serve one year. The following shows the organization:

Captain, George Sanderson; Lieutenant, David McCabe; Ensign, Isaac Larimar; Sergeants, John Vanmeter, John Smith, James Larimar and Isaac Winter; Corporals, James White, Daniel Hudson, Robert Cunningham and William Wallace; Privates, George Baker, William Brubeck, Daniel Baker, Robert Cunningham, John Dugan, John Davis, William Edmonds, Reese Fitzpatrick, John Hiles, Christopher Hiles, Thomas Hardy, Philip Hines, Archibald Darnell, William Jenkenson, William Jenkens, Samuel Johnson, Isaac Finkbone, John Kerley, Joseph Loffland, John Collins, Chas. Martin, John McIntire, Jacob Monteith, Jonas Monteith, Jacob Mellon, Daniel Miller, William McDonald, William McClung, Henry Martin, William Nelson, Joseph Oburn, Cornelius Post, William Ray, John Swiler, Daniel Smith, Jacob Sharp, Thomas Short, Samuel Work, Joseph Whetson, Henry Shoupe, John Huffman and Samuel Nolan—42.

This company, with all its officers, on the 16th day of August, 1812, was captured by the British in command of General Brock, or rather surrendered by General Hull, and were paroled not to enter the service until regularly exchanged. The exchange did not take place until May, 1814. In the meanwhile, many of the privates and officers re-enlisted on account of the perfidy of General Hull in surrendering them when there seemed, according to the best judgment of the Americans, no occasion for it. Under this belief the men disregarded the parole. General Sanderson was one of the members who re-enlisted before the exchange, and in April, 1813, he mustered another company from the counties of Franklin, Delaware, Fairfield, and from portions of the Western Reserve. The following is its constitution:

CHAPTER XXI

Adams Township

IN OUR stories of the townships we begin with Adams because it comes first, alphabetically considered. When called upon to name the townships of Guernsey county, pupils in the schools begin with Adams. Back in the days of the county political conventions the delegates from Adams township were the first to vote.

One of the Last Formed.—But Adams township was not the first to be organized; in fact, it was one of the last of the nineteen townships to be formed. The twenty-five square miles of territory of which it is composed were taken from Knox and Westland townships, between which it is situated. It was set apart by the county commissioners in 1827 and named Adams, not for John Adams, the second President of the United States, but for John Quincy Adams, his son, who was then President.

Physical Features.—Adams township is drained by two streams—Crooked creek and Sarchet's run, both of which empty into Wills creek. A ridge that is followed by the Lebanon road divides the waters of the two streams. Peter's creek is the main tributary of Crooked creek, within the township. Crooked creek, as the name implies, is a meandering stream. Sarchet's run takes its name from that of a family once living near its mouth. An incident that gave Peter's creek its name is told in the chapter on Washington township.

Pioneers of the Township.—The early history of Adams township is a part of that of Knox and Westland. Zane's Trace cut across the southeastern part of what is now Adams. It was on this road that the first settlers of the township located. Among the first, if not the first settler, was Stewart Speer, born in Pennsylvania in 1783. As early as 1808 he kept a tavern near the present Pike consolidated school. When the War of 1812 began, he enlisted and became a lieutenant in the company of Captain Simon Beymer. He was a member of the first Guernsey county grand jury, impaneled on August 27, 1810, and afterwards served as an associate judge of the county. Descendants of this pioneer are yet living in Adams township.

In 1815 Thomas Knox came with his parents from Pennsylvania, to what was then Westland, later Knox, but now Adams township. He was then sixteen years of age. A few years later he married Jane Miller, born in Ireland in 1800. In 1812 her family set sail for America. The ship was captured by the British and the Millers carried to Newfoundland, where they were held as prisoners until the close of the war, two years later. Here her mother died. From Newfoundland she came to Pennsylvania; afterwards, to what is now Adams township.

Another pioneer of the township, whose descendants are yet found in the county, was Samuel Mehaffey. Born in Ireland, he married Margaret Bingham there, and set sail for America in 1812. Their arrival in this country was on the very day war was declared against Great Britain (June 19, 1812). When in sight of New York their vessel was boarded by the officers of a British ship of war. Had the declaration of war been known to these officials, the Mehaffeys would have been taken prisoners, as were the Millers.

Among the heads of other Adams township pioneer families were Benjamin Reasoner, William McCulley, David Thompson, Alexander Leeper, Robert Bell, John Sunnafrank and Robert Boyd.

Old Folks of 1876.—A census of Guernsey county people seventy-six years or more of age, taken by The Jeffersonian in 1876, showed the following as living in Adams township: Abram Barnes, George Estep, Mrs. Estep, Joseph Gleur, Andrew Hamilton, John Hammond, Mrs. J. Hammond, Samuel Lee, Mrs. S. Lee, John Leech, Samuel Maxwell, Mrs. Maxwell, Samuel Patterson, Robert S. Ross, Mrs. Ross, Robert Simpson, James Sherrard, Mrs. Sherrard and Samuel Wells.

Population.—1830, 736; 1840, 866; 1850, 860; 1860, 804; 1870, 762; 1880, 806; 1890, 740; 1900, 717; 1910, 608; 1920, 574; 1930, 516

It will be noted that there were 220 fewer people in the township in 1930 than there were a hundred years before.

Two towns were platted in Adams township—Cassel Station in the southern part, and Mantua in the northern. The latter, which lay partly in Knox township, was platted August 6, 1853, by Thomas P. Wilson and William P. Rose. The postoffice established at Cassel Station was called Galligher; the one at Mantua, Creighton. Both were closed many years ago. Excepting a few families in the western part, who receive their mail through New Concord, all the people of the township are served by rural mail carriers from Cambridge.

Lebanon.—Many Adams township people are United Presbyterians. Their church is Lebanon in the northwestern part of the township. It was established on April 24, 1824, with David Proudfit as its first pastor. It now is and always has been one of the leading rural churches of the county.

Among the pastors of this church during the first fifty years of its existence were Rev. Welch, Rev. Benjamin Waddle, Rev. Samuel Wallace and Rev. James Duncan. As early as 1838 there were seventy-three families connected with the church. The building now in use was erected in 1905. Several of its present members are descendants of the first settlers of that section and founders of the church.

Near the church is the Lebanon cemetery. There was once a Lebanon school but it has been closed and the pupils are now transported to a consolidated school. The section is widely known as the Lebanon community, and is reached from Cambridge by the Lebanon road, one of the best roads in the county, from which may be obtained a beautiful view of the surrounding country.

Dr. James Duncan.—The pastor of the Lebanon church in the 1850's was Dr. James Duncan who was one of the first graduates of Madison College. Making his home at Mantua, he also preached at Mt. Hermon. He afterwards became known throughout the United Presbyterian church from coast to coast as one of its most eloquent pulpit orators. He possessed an outstanding style which was particularly picturesque and, it was said, wherever he went to preach he was reasonably sure of a full house.

LEBANON CHURCH

In the fall of 1857 Rev. Matthew Henderson Williams resigned as president of Madison College. The board of trustees insisted that Dr. Duncan accept the position. He did so tentatively and drove from Mantua to Antrim, a distance of twenty or twenty-five miles, each Monday morning, reaching the college in time for the opening exercises at nine o'clock. On Friday afternoons he would return to Mantua and preach at each of his churches the following Sabbath. His two congregations were absolutely unwilling to part with their pastor and left the matter with the presbytery to decide. That body voted against releasing him from the pastoral oversight of Lebanon and Mt. Hermon, whereupon he declined the presidency of Madison College, having served, however, as acting president for several months.

It is generally agreed that the declination of Dr. Duncan to continue as president was the death knell of the college. The institution was heavily involved in debt. Along with his preaching ability Dr. Duncan possessed a rare administrative ability, and he might have been able to save the college from falling into the hands of its creditors. Rev. William Lorimer succeeded Dr. Duncan as president of Madison College. During his term the crisis came.

The last commencement was held September 1, 1859. Dr. Duncan delivered the anniversary address. The class was composed of five young men and one young woman. Four of the young men became prominent ministers, and the young woman became the mother of some of the most outstanding ministers and missionaries of the U. P. church—Rev. John McClenahan, D.D., of Chicago; Rev. William McClenahan, D.D., missionary to Egypt; and Dr. Frank McClenahan, professor of Physics and Geology at Monmouth College.

Thomas P. Proudfit, salutatorian of the class, was the father of Dr. Charles P. Proudfit who recently served as pastor of the Cambridge United Presbyterian church and is now the general secretary of the Board of Education of the United Presbyterian Church of North America. Thomas P. Proudfit became one of the pioneer home missionaries and one of the first to serve in the great territory between the Mississippi River and the Rocky Mountains. He taught Latin and Greek and was the author of a number of books relating to the work of the United Presbyterian church.

The male member of the class who did not become a preacher was Dr. John McBurney who chose to be an educator. A sketch of Dr. McBurney may be found in another chapter of this work.

Geographical History of Lebanon Churchyard

Originally in Washington County.—On the Coshocton road, in Adams township, is a plot of ground which, from a geographical standpoint, has had many locations. This is the Lebanon churchyard. This same change in geography is true of a number of farms in that section.

The Lebanon churchyard was once located in Washington county, Ohio, whose county seat is Marietta. When that county was formed in 1788, it comprised more than the eastern half of the present state of Ohio. All the territory that is now Guernsey county was in Washington county.

Located in Muskingum County.—The Lebanon churchyard was once located in Muskingum county, Ohio, whose county seat is Zanesville. However, all of Guernsey county was not thus located. Muskingum county, as a separate political unit, was carved out of Washington county in 1804. Muskingum county was much larger than it is today, including all of what is now Guernsey county, excepting the three eastern townships—Londonderry, Oxford and Millwood. These were in the Seven Ranges and belonged to Belmont county.

Now a Part of Guernsey County.—When Guernsey county was formed in 1810, the Lebanon churchyard then came into another county where it has since remained. Its county locations have thus been as follows: Washington, 1788 to 1804; Muskingum, 1804 to 1810; Guernsey, 1810 to present time.

Deeds granted to purchasers of Military land in Guernsey county prior to 1804—and some land was purchased then—were recorded in Marietta. Those granted between 1804 and 1810 were recorded in Zanesville. After Guernsey county had been organized and an office of record established here, copies of some of the records on file in Marietta and Zanesville were brought to Cambridge and placed in the recorder's office. The fact that all were not thus transferred has made it necessary for many who wish information concerning land changes made before 1810, to seek it where first filed.

In Westland Township.—The Lebanon churchyard was once located in Westland township, but today it is several miles from that division of

Fifty-eighth anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Forsyth was celebrated Thursday at their home, the occasion marking the first time the entire family had ever been together at one time. Seated, left to right, are A.L. Forsyth, Redlands; Mrs. Violla E. McKee, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Forsyth, the honored couple; P. O. Forsyth, Valley Falls, Kan.; Johnny Forsyth, Willcox, Ariz.; Byron Forsyth, Willcox, Ariz. Standing, left to right, are Mrs. Thekla F. Salisbury, Los Angeles; Mrs. P. Winona Perry, Chino; L. Monica Freelove, Cheyenne, Wyo.; Mrs. B. Natalie Thoreson, Los Angeles; Cyril L. Forsyth, Patagonia, Ariz.; Mrs. Marian V. West, Glendora; and Mrs. Lois F. Epperson, Pasadena.

With their entire family together for the first time, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Forsyth observed their 58th wedding anniversary Thursday at their home, 1491 E. 5th avenue. Presence of all the 12 children made the day doubly significant for Mr. and Mrs. Forsyth, because at all previous reunions one or more had been unable to attend.

The anniversary was celebrated with a family dinner at the home. A number of the 29 grandchildren and nine great grandchildren also were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Forsyth were married December 29, 1880, in Valley Falls, Kan. Mr. Forsyth taught school for 20 years, during which time the family moved from place to place, afterward settling in Winchester, Kan. Mr. Forsyth was a rancher there, and the family resided at Winchester until coming to Pomona in 1912. The family home here is on a small ranch.

Mr. Forsyth, who was born in New Concord, O., is 83 years old. Mrs. Forsyth, a native of Robinson, Kan., is 78 years old. Her maiden name was Marcia Collins.

More than 30 persons were present for the dinner yesterday. Altho the entire family had never been together previously at one time, the five sons had enjoyed reunions. Yesterday, however, was the first time that the five had been together in 32 years.

Fifty-eighth anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Forsyth was celebrated Thursday at their home, the occasion marking the first time the entire family had ever been together at one time. Seated, left to right, are A.L. Forsyth, Redlands; Mrs. Violla E. McKee, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Forsyth, the honored couple; P. O. Forsyth, Valley Falls, Kan.; Johnny Forsyth, Willcox, Ariz.; Byron Forsyth, Willcox, Ariz. Standing, left to right, are Mrs. Thekla F. Salisbury, Los Angeles; Mrs. P. Winona Perry, Chino; L. Monica Freelove, Cheyenne, Wyo.; Mrs. B. Natalie Thoreson, Los Angeles; Cyril L. Forsyth, Patagonia, Ariz.; Mrs. Marian V. West, Glendora; and Mrs. Lois F. Epperson, Pasadena.

With their entire family together for the first time, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Forsyth observed their 58th wedding anniversary Thursday at their home, 1491 E. 5th avenue. Presence of all the 12 children made the day doubly significant for Mr. and Mrs. Forsyth, because at all previous reunions one or more had been unable to attend.

The anniversary was celebrated with a family dinner at the home. A number of the 29 grandchildren and nine great grandchildren also were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Forsyth were married December 29, 1880, in Valley Falls, Kan. Mr. Forsyth taught school for 20 years, during which time the family moved from place to place, afterward settling in Winchester, Kan. Mr. Forsyth was a rancher there, and the family resided at Winchester until coming to Pomona in 1912. The family home here is on a small ranch.

Mr. Forsyth, who was born in New Concord, O., is 83 years old. Mrs. Forsyth, a native of Robinson, Kan., is 78 years old. Her maiden name was Marcia Collins.

More than 30 persons were present for the dinner yesterday. Altho the entire family had never been together previously at one time, the five sons had enjoyed reunions. Yesterday, however, was the first time that the five had been together in 32 years.

Seated, left to right, are A.L. Forsyth, Redlands; Mrs. Violla E. McKee, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Forsyth, the honored couple; P. O. Forsyth, Valley Falls, Kan.; Johnny Forsyth, Willcox, Ariz.; Byron Forsyth, Willcox, Ariz. Standing, left to right, are Mrs. Thekla F. Salisbury, Los Angeles; Mrs. P. Winona Perry, Chino; L. Monica Freelove, Cheyenne, Wyo.; Mrs. B. Natalie Thoreson, Los Angeles; Cyril L. Forsyth, Patagonia, Ariz.; Mrs. Marian V. West, Glendora; and Mrs. Lois F. Epperson, Pasadena.

With their entire family together for the first time, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Forsyth observed their 58th wedding anniversary Thursday at their home, 1491 E. 5th avenue. Presence of all the 12 children made the day doubly significant for Mr. and Mrs. Forsyth, because at all previous reunions one or more had been unable to attend.

The anniversary was celebrated with a family dinner at the home. A number of the 29 grandchildren and nine great grandchildren also were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Forsyth were married December 29, 1880, in Valley Falls, Kan. Mr. Forsyth taught school for 20 years, during which time the family moved from place to place, afterward settling in Winchester, Kan. Mr. Forsyth was a rancher there, and the family resided at Winchester until coming to Pomona in 1912. The family home here is on a small ranch.

Mr. Forsyth, who was born in New Concord, O., is 83 years old. Mrs. Forsyth, a native of Robinson, Kan., is 78 years old. Her maiden name was Marcia Collins.

More than 30 persons were present for the dinner yesterday. Altho the entire family had never been together previously at one time, the five sons had enjoyed reunions. Yesterday, however, was the first time that the five had been together in 32 years.

With their entire family together for the first time, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Forsyth observed their 58th wedding anniversary Thursday at their home, 1491 E. 5th avenue. Presence of all the 12 children made the day doubly significant for Mr. and Mrs. Forsyth, because at all previous reunions one or more had been unable to attend.

The anniversary was celebrated with a family dinner at the home. A number of the 29 grandchildren and nine great grandchildren also were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Forsyth were married December 29, 1880, in Valley Falls, Kan. Mr. Forsyth taught school for 20 years, during which time the family moved from place to place, afterward settling in Winchester, Kan. Mr. Forsyth was a rancher there, and the family resided at Winchester until coming to Pomona in 1912. The family home here is on a small ranch.

Mr. Forsyth, who was born in New Concord, O., is 83 years old. Mrs. Forsyth, a native of Robinson, Kan., is 78 years old. Her maiden name was Marcia Collins.

More than 30 persons were present for the dinner yesterday. Altho the entire family had never been together previously at one time, the five sons had enjoyed reunions
